Director of Intelligence
4A932 Pentagon
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Sammy:

While I do not consider it appropriate for me to write an official memorandum on this matter, I did want you to know personally that Major Matthias F. Donelan, who accompanied me on my trip to South and Central America, acquitted himself well. The nature of the trip and my identity as Deputy Director of Central Intelligence placed before each member of the party certain problems which required the exercise of considerable tact and discretion. Major Donelan met this challenge in an outstanding manner, and, moreover, was a very pleasant travelling companion. It was a pleasure to have him with me on the trip.

Sincerely,

C. P. CABELL
Lieutenant General, USAF
Deputy Director
